PFCCU Employee Graduates Prestigious CUNA Management School

Springfield, Mo. – Derek Williams, vice president of member services at Postal Federal Community Credit Union, graduated from Southwest CUNA Management School (SCMS) in July.

Providing management education for more than 40 years, SCMS specializes in professional development in the credit union movement that is recognized for being innovative, intense and hands-on.

The management program consists of

- Three years of study
- Development of a strategic plan
- Networking within the credit union industry

“Southwest CUNA Management School has proven to be an invaluable experience and I am thankful for the opportunity to have attended such a great school,” Williams said.

Williams first graduated from Missouri State University with a Bachelor of Science in Computer Information Systems. He previously served PFCCU as vice president of information systems before he was promoted to his current position.

The Credit Union National Association is the premier national trade association serving America’s credit unions.

Postal Federal Community Credit Union, with 18,000 members and assets over $130 million, is Springfield’s largest credit union. They have five locations and provide access to over 25,000 surcharge-free ATMs nationwide through their Co-Op Network affiliation. PFCCU provides affordable financial services to those who work or reside in a 10 county area of southwest Missouri. To learn more, please visit www.postalfed.org or call 417-887-1983.
